

APPENDIX B FISH CONSUMPTION ADVISORIES IN NORTH CAROLINA, FEBRUARY 2000

WATERBODY	POLLUTANT	SPECIES	ADVISORY DESCRIPTION
Pigeon River (includes Waterville Lake)	Dioxin	Carp, Catfish	All groups should not consume fish
Belews Lake	Selenium	Carp, Redear Sunfish, Crappie	General Population – 1 meal per week. Children and childbearing women – No consumption
Hyco Lake	Selenium	Carp, White Catfish, Green Sunfish	General Population – 1 meal per week. Children and childbearing women – No consumption
Baytree Lake	Mercury	Largemouth Bass	All groups should not consume fish
Ledbetter Lake	Mercury	Largemouth Bass	General Population – 2 meals per month. Children and childbearing women – No consumption
Phelps Lake	Mercury	Largemouth Bass	General Population – 2 meals per month. Children and childbearing women - no consumption
Roanoke River (Williamston to Albemarle Sound)	Dioxins	All fish except herring, shad and shellfish	General Population – 2 meals per month. Children and childbearing women – No consumption
Pages Lake, Pit Links and Watson Lake	Mercury	Largemouth Bass	General Population – 2 meals per month. Children and childbearing women – No consumption
Big Creek (Columbus County)	Mercury	Largemouth Bass	General Population – 2 meals per month. Children and childbearing women – No consumption
Waccamaw River	Mercury	Largemouth Bass	General Population – 2 meals per month. Children and childbearing women – No consumption
Welch Creek	Dioxins	All fish except shellfish	All groups should not consume fish
South River and Black River below South River	Mercury	Largemouth Bass, Chain Pickerel	General Population – 2 meals per month. Children and childbearing women – No consumption
Albemarle Sound (Bull Bay to Harvey Point west to mouth of Roanoke and Chowan Rivers	Dioxins	All fish except herring, shad and shellfish	General Population – 2 meals per month. Children and childbearing women – No consumption
All waters in the Lumber River basin including Pages Lake, Lake Tabor, Lake Waccamaw, Maxton Pond and Johns Pond	Mercury	Largemouth Bass	General Population – 2 meals per month. Children and childbearing women – No consumption
All waters of North Carolina	Mercury	Bowfin	General Population – 2 meals per month. Children and childbearing women – No consumption

WATERBODY	POLLUTANT	SPECIES	ADVISORY DESCRIPTION
Atlantic Ocean	Mercury	King Mackerel	Fish >39 inches long: All groups should not consume fish Fish 33 to 39 inches long: General Population – 1 meal per week. Children and childbearing women – 1 meal per month